AI is already in more places than you think.

SWIPE ->

- Your inbox - spam and priority sorting
- Your feed - ranking and recommendations
- Your camera - face detection and scene modes
- Your bank - fraud detection in milliseconds
- Your maps - ETA prediction and routing
- Your search - semantic understanding
- Your keyboard - next-word prediction

The magic is that it faded into the background. The best AI is invisible.

What's your favourite everyday example that people forget is AI?
